

MASTER OF ARTS (PUBLIC POLICY)

Term-End Examination

December, 2014

00003

MPP-002 : LAW FOR ADMINISTRATION

Time : 3 hours

Maximum Marks : 70

---

Note : Attempt any seven questions by selecting at least three from each section in about 250 words each.

---

SECTION A

1. Explain Dicey's concept of "Rule of Law". What features would you like to add to make the concept more in line with the contemporary world ? 10
2. Discuss the main principles of natural justice with suitable decided cases. 10
3. Highlight the salient features of the Constitution with special reference to basic structure doctrine. 10
4. 'The Indian Constitution seeks to walk a tight rope between Unitary and Federal form.' Comment. 10
5. Law and Justice are intertwined and cannot be separated. Examine. 10

SECTION B

6. What constitutes offences against the State under IPC ? What specifically are the ingredients of sedition ? 10

  7. Differentiate between Section 133 and Section 144 of the Cr.P.C., 1973. 10

  8. "Fundamental Rights differ from Constitutional and Legal Rights since they draw upon the jurisprudence of natural law school." Discuss. 10

  9. Explain the key steps in the institution of a civil suit. What are the consequences of non-appearance ? 10

  10. Public Interest Litigation (PIL) is a useful tool for enforcement of fundamental rights. Do you agree ? Give reasons. 10
-