BACHELOR OF COMPUTER APPLICATIONS (Pre-revised) (BCA)

Term-End Practical Examination

(i)

December, 2016

CS-65(P)/S3: WINDOWS PROGRAMMING

Time: 2 Hours

Maximum Marks: 75

Note:

- There are two compulsory questions of 50 marks in this paper.
- (ii) Rest 25 marks are for viva-voce.
- 1. Write a VB program to take a four-digit number as input and display the sum of digits in the number. If the input number is not of four digits, display message to input the other number. Use appropriate controls to design user interface.

25

2. Write a VB program which takes a number smaller than 10 as input and displays the factorial of it. If the input number is not less than 10, displays message for proper input. Use appropriate controls to design user interface.

25