

04904

No. of Printed Pages : 2

MJM-021

M. A. in Journalism and
Mass Communication (MAJMC-F2F)
Term-End Examination
December, 2018

MJM-021 : POLITICAL REPORTING AND WRITING

Time : 3 Hours

Maximum Marks : 60

Note : Attempt any five questions. All questions carry equal marks.

1. Discuss the emergence of citizen journalism in Indian context. Cite with suitable examples.
2. What is paid news ? Explain its ramifications in coverage of election campaigns.
3. Define political reporting. Explain the basic skills and knowledge required for a reporter to cover political beat.
4. Enumerate the recent developments in political reporting style. Compare and contrast the converge of politics between a national newspaper and a national news channel.

(A-1) P. T. O.

[2]

5. Discuss the role and significance of social media used for the various political and social movements. Cite suitable examples from Indian context.
6. Explain the pros and cons of covering external affairs.