

No. of Printed Pages : 4

BFDI-072

CERTIFICATE IN FASHION DESIGN
(CFDE)

Term-End Examination

December, 2023

BFDI-072 : BASICS OF PATTERN MAKING AND SEWING

Time : 2 Hours

Maximum Marks : 50

Note : Part A—Attempt any six questions.

Part B—Attempt any two questions.

Part—A

1. What are balance marks ? Why are they important on a pattern ? 5
2. Explain different types of fabric layout. 5
3. Explain grading of a pattern. 5

P. T. O.

4. State whether the following statements are True (T) or False (F) : 5
- (a) Notches on the pattern symbolize the cutting line.
 - (b) Back stitch is done at the beginning and end of each stitch.
 - (c) A row of stitching done on the outside of a garment is known as selvedge.
 - (d) Direction of yarns in a fabric is known as grain.
 - (e) Double pointed dart is also called as fish dart.
5. Explain the term Draping. Write down its key features. 5
6. Explain the set of measurements required for making a skirt block. 5
7. Discuss the importance of size chart in pattern making. 5
8. Describe the parts which comprise the upright section of a sewing machine. 5

Part—B

9. What do you understand by pattern details ?
Discuss seam allowances with the help of illustrations. 10
10. Write about the different parts of a sewing machine and its functions. 10
11. Explain different types of hand stitches and their importance in garment construction. 10
12. Fill in the blanks with the correct word : 1 each
- (a) controls the lightness of the upper thread.
- (b) Step-by-step information of garment construction in on
- (c) Tailoring chalk is used at the time of
- (d) part helps to bind the bobbin.
- (e) is used to control the fullness in garment.
- (f) Wider fold of the fabric is known as

- (g) holds the fabric in place in sewing machine.
- (h) Information for cutting, marking and sewing fabric pieces together is written on
- (i) dart is generally used at the waist line in one piece dress.
- (j) Scoop is the name of