

POST GRADUATE DIPLOMA IN
MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH

Term-End Examination

June, 2012

MME-203 : CHILD HEALTH

Time : 3 hours

Maximum Marks : 70

Note : All questions are compulsory.

1. What are the principles of Essential Postnatal Care ? How will you prevent Hypothermia in a newborn ? 10+5=15

2. Write Short notes on the following : 3x5=15
 - (a) Management of a Baby born to mother with active pulmonary Tuberculosis.
 - (b) Triage of sick children
 - (c) Persistent Diarrhoea-definition and management.

3. Write short notes on : 3x5=15
 - (a) Advantages of breast feeding.
 - (b) Management of Kerosene oil ingestion in a toddler.
 - (c) Management protocol for Status Epilepticus

4. Briefly discuss the following : 3x5=15
- (a) Polio Eradication Strategies.
 - (b) Differences between Marasmus and Kwashiorkor.
 - (c) Environment tobacco smoke.

5. Answer the following : 3+7=10
- Asha is 18 months old. She weighs 6 kg and is brought with complaints of cough for 4 days. The doctor checked for general danger signs. Asha is able to drink, has not been vomiting, has not had convulsions and is not lethargic or unconscious. On Assessing, Asha has breath rate of 50 per minute. She has chest indrawing but no stridor. Asha does not have diarrhoea, fever or ear problem. Asha has signs of visible severe wasting and some pallor.
- (a) Draw out a List of probable diagnoses including all comorbidities for this case.
 - (b) Discuss the management of Pneumonia of different severities.
-