SECTION - B

Read the following case situations and answer the questions given at the end.

6. Dileep and Abjith are students of a B-School. 20
Dileep reads books and gains wide knowledge. Abjith gains Knowledge using internet. Dileep believes concepts can only be thoroughly understood by extensive reading. Abjith thinks quite opposite. All information relating to concepts is available electronically and can be understood by using internet.

Questions :

- (a) Is reading a book better than acquiring knowledge through internet ?
- (b) Does the concept of Digital Learning end the era of Traditional Learning ?

7. A person gains knowledge when he individually 20
Masters it and Experiences it. Now-a-days B-Schools encourage group learning methods. But some believe, the individual learns only a part in the group learning process. Absolute Mastering is not possible in group. The strong belief is that "Learning is a personal Process" and " Group Learning sharpens the interactive skills and not conceptual skills".

Questions :

- (a) Is Learning an Individual process or group process ?
- (b) Does group learning increase conceptual clarity or just develop interactive skills ?
