2. Organisations: Be a little more selective and analytical before drawing up a rough outline of your answer. In an essay-type question, give adequate attention to your introduction and conclusion. The introduction must offer your brief interpretation of the question and how you propose to develop it.

The conclusion must summarise your response to the question. In the course of your answer, you may like to make reference to other texts or critics as this will add some depth to your analysis.

Make sure that your answer:

- a) is logical and coherent;
- b) has clear connections between sentences and paragraphs;
- c) is written correctly, given adequate consideration to your expression, style and presentation;
- d) does not exceed the number of words indicated in your question.
