

Certificate in Maternal and Child Health Nursing (CMCHN)

(Block 1 to 6) TMA

TMA/BNS – 117/2021

Maximum Marks – 100

Passing Marks – 50

Last date of Submission: 30th April/30th October, 2021

Part A : Two long answer questions of 15 marks each

Part B : Seven short answer questions of 10 marks each= 70

Part A

1. (a) Explain concept of disease causation with example of a disease having web of causation
 - (b) Discuss Natural History of Disease with the help of diagram.
 - (c) Describe the levels of prevention of diseases. (6+4+5=15)
2. (a) Explain Antenatal care and enumerate Aims of the antenatal care
 - (b) Discuss the various factors increasing risks during pregnancy.
 - (c) Describe role of Nurse/Health Worker in giving antenatal advices to improve health status of women. (5+5+5=15)

Part B

3. (a) Explain various methods of maintaining body temperature of newborn baby. Name the method you are following at your work place.
 - (b) Discuss your role as a nurse in prevention of various neonatal infections. (6+4)
4. Discuss how would you Assess and classify sick children for signs of Malnutrition. (10)
5. Explain Syndromic approach for management of STDs. (10)
6. Explain common types of abortions with signs, symptoms and management. (10)
7. Describe following Communicable Diseases in terms of their signs and symptoms(s/s) and treatment:-
 - (a) Childhood Tuberculosis
 - (b) Hepatitis B (5+5)
8. (a) Discuss Plan A: Treat Diarrhoea at Home.
 - (b) Explain how you would as a nurse counsel the mother of a young infant about feeding problems. (5+5)
9. Explain 7 C's of effective Communication. Discuss your role as a nurse during verbal communication mentioning the points you will keep in mind. (10)