1. Develop a website for the TERI Library (The Energy and Resources Institute), based on the information provided below.

Established in 1974 as a Documentation and Information Centre, TERI LIC has emerged as a pioneering research centre in South Asia on energy, environment and sustainable development.

You may use appropriate HTML tags, controls, tables, images, logos and navigational elements.

The text information is as follows :

The homepage should have a menu bar at the top showing links as resources, services, specialized services, products and publications.

Resources : TERI's library collection comprises over 21,000 books, 107 current journals and 7000 bound volumes of journals, and thousands of miscellaneous items.

Services : Circulation, Abstracting services, Reference and referral services, Literature search, Special library Day on thematic Book Exhibition, Document delivery, OPAC, Reprography, and Inter Library Loan.

Specialized services : E - based and Web services, Project Based Services, Consultancy Services, and Learning and Capacity Development.

Products : Enviro News Monitor (Monthly), E-zine on Contemporary Issues (Monthly), RE Monitor (Monthly), Energy Access Monitor (Quarterly), Steel Industry Report and Smart Cities in India.

Publications :

- World Digital Library (Peer reviewed quarterly journal).
- TERI Information Digest on Energy and Environment (TIDEE) (Quarterly abstracting journal).
- Mycorrhiza News (Quarterly News letter).

All the above web pages should have a link to the Homepage of TERI Library.
